

Watch the wonderful animated short film 'The Fantastic Flying Books of Mr. Morris Lessmore' and challenge yourself to do some deep thinking....

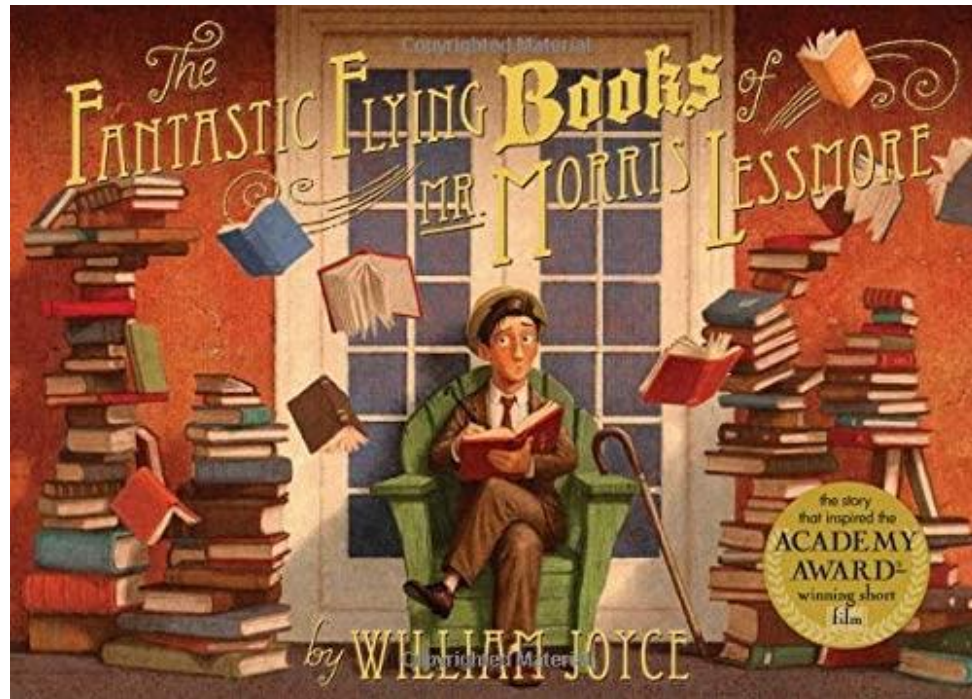

Start by watching The Fantastic Flying Books of Mr. Morris Lessmore here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ad3CMri3hOs&t=15s>

The story is also available in a picture book form, which you can have read to you here (or you can read it for yourself):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7ZPnW-B-tvA>

Thinking Challenge

What do you think has happened to Morris Lessmore at the start of the story when everything turns grey and the wind blows?

Where do you think the lady being pulled up into the sky by the flying books is going?

What do you think the magical house with all of the books represents?

Why do the people become coloured when Morris gives them books to read?

Why is it time for Morris to leave when he has finished writing his story?

Where do you think Morris goes at the end of the film?

Thinking Deeper

Christians believe that every single person is precious to God and every person's story matters. What do you think about this?

Many people think that a person lives on if we can't see them anymore because of the story that they leave behind them. What do you think about this?

If your story was going to be read by others in years to come, what would you want to make sure it said about you?