Tuesday

Today, we are going to look at descriptive vocabulary that could describe how your life has changed in lockdown. This will be useful for our letter to interest the reader! What adjectives would you use to describe the things around you? What is different to normal?

Your task: Below are 4 places that have been affected by the lockdown in England. Underneath the table is a word bank which has interesting and descriptive words. Each word describes one of the 4 places. Match the best words to the correct place by writing them in the correct column in the table. Use a dictionary or the internet to look up any words that you do not understand.

Home Routines

Streets and Shops

Supermarkets and food supplies

Hospitals, Doctors and sick people

Word Bank

Abandoned Brave Desolated Calm Essential Stressful

Busy Modified Vacant Empty Adapted Controlled

Limited Competitive Restricted Busy Calm

Determined

Challenge 1:

Justify 3 of your choices. Write these out on a piece of paper. You could use the sentence structure below.

I chose to put the word ' _____ ' in the _____ column because _____ .

Challenge 2:

Can you think of any other descriptive words or adjectives that could go in each column?

Wednesday

Today, we are going to writing expanded noun phrases. These will be used in out letter to interest and excite the reader about British life that you are writing about.

Your task: Below is a template for you to fill out. Either print it or copy it onto a piece of paper. Draw a picture of yourself in the middle. You might want to include more detail in your picture too, such as your interests, school or family. In the other boxes, write some expanded noun phrases that are descriptive and relevant. Some examples are in the boxes for you.
